Term of Reference The 2nd ICoLLiT

The term education 4.0 is a very popular topic today because of its big influence on education system. Its emergence is inspired by Industry Revolution 4.0. It is a new paradigm which focuses on the innovation and information technology. This new paradigm has been promoted in many fields of studies, including EFL teaching, linguistic and literary studies. It is unavoidable that the use of information technology supports the jobs of educators as well as researchers.

This conference is aimed to explore current trends, concepts and strategies for the adaptation to new industrial revolution, especially in the field of EFL teaching, linguistic and literary studies. This conference is an important contribution to the understanding of education 4.0 to look at what is happening within the world of EFL teaching, linguistic and literary studies. It is rather broad in its scope and yet grounded in its focus on actual examples from educational field, either in higher education as well as primary or secondary education. This conference, therefore, is worth attending.

Preface

On behalf of the 2nd ICoLLIT organizing committee, I am honored and delighted to welcome you to the 2nd International Conference on Language, Literature and Teaching.

Our conference is varied with 1 keynote speech and 3 invited talks and around 48 papers split between 2 parallel oral sessions. The conference's goal is to bring together, a multi-disciplinary group of experts and language teachers from all over the world to present and exchange break-through ideas relating to the Language, Literature, and Teaching. It promotes top level research and to globalize the quality research in general, thus making discussions, presentations more internationally competitive and focusing attention on the recent outstanding achievements in the field of Language, Literature and Teaching.

As a conference chair of ICoLLIT 2019, I know that the success of the conference depends ultimately on the many people who have worked with us in planning and organizing the program. In particular, we thank the Rector for their support in holding this conference, the Program Committee for their thorough and timely reviewing of the papers, and our sponsors who have helped us to keep down the costs of ICoLLIT for all participants. Recognition should go to the Organizing Committee members who have all worked hard for the details of important aspects of the conference programs.

We hope that you will find the conference both enjoyable and valuable, and also enjoy the cultural and natural beauty of Surakarta.
